STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Transgender community is one of the most marginalised communities in the country because they do not fit into the general categories of gender of male or female. Consequently, they face problems ranging from social exclusion to discrimination, lack of education facilities, unemployment, lack of medical facilities and so on.

2. Though article 14 of the Constitution guarantees to all persons equality before law, clauses (1) and (2) of article 15 and clause (2) of article 16, inter alia, prohibit in express terms, discrimination on the ground only of sex and sub-clause (a) of clause (1) of article 19 ensures freedom of speech and expression to all citizens, yet the discrimination and atrocities against the transgender persons continue to take place.

3. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, vide its order dated 15th April, 2014, passed in the case of National Legal Services Authority Vs. Union of India, inter alia, directed the Central Government and State Governments to take various steps for the welfare of transgender community and to treat them as a third gender for the purpose of safeguarding their rights under Part III of the Constitution and other laws made by Parliament and the State Legislature.

4. The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Bill, 2019 seeks to—

- (a) define the expression "transgender person";
- (b) prohibit discrimination against transgender persons;
- (c) confer right upon transgender persons to be recognised as such, and a right to self-perceived gender identity;
- (d) make provisions for issue of certificate of identity to transgender persons;
- (e) provide that no establishment shall discriminate against transgender persons in matters relating to employment, recruitment, promotion and other related issues;
- (f) provide for grievance redressal mechanism in each establishment;
- (g) establish a National Council for Transgender Persons;
- (h) provide punishment for contraventions of the provisions of the proposed legislation.

5. The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Bill, 2016, for the aforementioned purpose, which was passed by the Lok Sabha and pending consideration and passing in the Rajya Sabha, lapsed on dissolution of the Sixteenth Lok Sabha. Hence, the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Bill, 2019.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Sub-clause 2 of clause 8 of the Bill states that the appropriate Government shall take such welfare measures as may be necessary to protect the rights and interests of the transgender persons, and facilitate their access to welfare schemes framed by that Government.

5. Clause 16 of the Bill proposes to constitution of a National Council for Transgender Persons.

6. Clause 19 of the Bill provides that the Central Government shall, from time to time, after due appropriation made by Parliament by law in this behalf, credit such sums to the National Council as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

7. For the current financial year, an amount of one crore rupees has been allocated as budgetary expenditure for the transgender persons scheme. It is not possible at this juncture to estimate the full financial burden likely to be incurred if all the provisions of the proposed legislation, if enacted, were implemented. The above expenditure will be met from the budgetary allocation of the Plan Scheme for transgender persons.

8. The Bill does not involve any other recurring or non-recurring expenditure.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Non-banking entities are allowed to raise deposits from the public under the provisions of various statutes enacted by the Central Government and the State Governments. However, the regulatory framework for deposit taking activity in the country is not seamless. The regulators operate in well defined areas within the financial sector by regulating particular kinds of entities or activities. For instance, Non-Banking Financial Companies are under the regulatory and supervisory jurisdiction of the Reserve Bank of India. Similarly Chit Funds, Money Circulation including multi-level marketing schemes and schemes offered by co-operative societies are under the domain of the respective State Governments. In the same manner, the Collective Investment Schemes come under the purview of the Securities and Exchange Board of India. Despite such diverse regulatory framework, schemes and arrangements leading to unauthorised collection of money and deposits fraudulently, by inducing public to invest in uncertain schemes promising high returns or other benefits, are still operating in the society.

2. The Central legislations such as the Prize Chits and Money Circulation Schemes (Banning) Act, 1978 and the Chit Funds Act, 1982 and the legislations enacted by the State Governments have not been able to completely address the issue of unregulated deposit schemes run by unscrupulous elements. This regulatory gap was highlighted in the twenty-first Report of the Parliamentary Related Standing Committee on Finance (Sixteenth Lok Sabha) titled as “Efficacy of Regulation of Collective Investment Schemes, Chit Funds, etc.”. The said Committee in its Report has recommended the requirement of “appropriate legislative provisions, coupled with effective administrative and enforcement measures in order to protect the hard-earned savings and investments made by millions of people”. Presently, there are considerable variations among State laws in protecting the interests of depositors, and many unregulated deposit taking schemes operate across State boundaries.

3. In view of the above, it becomes necessary to have a Central legislation to ensure a comprehensive ban on unregulated deposit taking activity and for its effective enforcement. The Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Bill, 2018 was introduced in the Lok Sabha on 18th July, 2018. The said Bill was referred to the Standing Committee on Finance on 10th August, 2018 for examination and report thereon. The Bill along with the amendments as recommended by the said Standing Committee was considered and passed in the Sixteenth Lok Sabha on 13th February, 2019. However, the Bill could not be considered and passed in the Rajya Sabha. Since, it was extremely critical to tackle the menace of illicit deposit taking activities in the country, the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Ordinance, 2019 was promulgated by the President on 21st February, 2019. It is now required to replace the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Ordinance, 2019 with an Act of Parliament.

4. The proposed Bill, namely, the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Bill, 2019, aims to prevent such unregulated deposit schemes or arrangements at their inception and at the same time makes soliciting, inviting or accepting deposits pursuant to an unregulated deposit scheme as a punishable offence. The Bill seeks to put in place a mechanism by which the depositors can be repaid without delay by attaching the assets of the defaulting establishments. The Bill also provides that its provisions will not apply to deposits taken in the ordinary course of business in order to ensure that various entities are able to take deposits in their ordinary course of business without any difficulty. The Bill ensures that no hardship is caused to genuine businesses, or to individuals borrowing money from their relatives or friends for personal reasons or to tide over a crisis.

5. The Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Bill, 2019, which seeks to replace the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Ordinance, 2019, inter alia, provides for the following, namely:—

- (i) to make a provision for banning of unregulated deposit schemes;
- (ii) to impose an obligation on the deposit taker, pursuant to a regulated deposit scheme, not to commit any fraudulent default in the repayment or return of the deposit;
- (iii) to provide for deterrent punishment for promoting or operating an unregulated deposit taking scheme;
- (iv) to provide for punishment for fraudulent default in repayment to depositors;
- (v) designation of a Competent Authority by the State Government to ensure repayment of deposits in the event of default by a deposit taking establishment;
- (vi) to constitute the Designated Courts for such area or areas or such case or cases as per the provisions of the proposed Bill;
- (vii) to empower the Central Government to designate an authority which shall create, maintain and operate an online database for information on deposit takers operating in India; and
- (viii) to confer powers and functions upon the Competent Authority including the power to attach assets of a defaulting establishment.

6. As the Parliament was not in session and an immediate legislation was required to be made, the President promulgated the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Ordinance, 2019 (Ord. 7 of 2019) on the 21st day of February, 2019.

7. The Notes on clauses explain in detail the provisions contained in the Bill.

8. The Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Right to Information Act, 2005 (the Act) was enacted to provide for setting out the practical regime of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, the constitution of a Central Information Commission and State Information Commissions and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

2. Section 13 of the Act provides for the term of office and conditions of service of the Chief Information Commissioner and Information Commissioners. It provides, inter alia, that the Chief Information Commissioner and every Information Commissioner shall hold office for a term of five years or till they attain the age of sixty-five years, whichever is earlier, and shall not be eligible for reappointment. It further provides that the salaries and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the Chief Information Commissioner and Information Commissioners shall be the same as that of the Chief Election Commissioner and Election Commissioner, respectively. Similarly, section 16 of the Act provides for the term of office and conditions of service of the State Chief Information Commissioner and State Information Commissioners. It provides, inter alia, that the State Chief Information Commissioner and every State Information Commissioner shall hold office for a term of five years or till they attain the age of sixty-five years, whichever is earlier, and shall not be eligible for reappointment. It provides that the salaries and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the State Chief Information Commissioner and State Information Commissioners shall be the same as that of the Election Commissioner and the Chief Secretary to the State Government, respectively.

3. The salaries and allowances and other terms and conditions of service of the Chief Election Commissioner and Election Commissioner are equal to a Judge of the Supreme Court, therefore, the Chief Information Commissioner, Information Commissioner and the State Chief Information Commissioner becomes equivalent to a Judge of the Supreme Court in terms of their salaries and allowances and other terms and conditions of service.

4. The functions being carried out by the Election Commission of India and the Central and State Information Commissions are totally different. The Election Commission is a constitutional body established by clause (1) of article 324 of the Constitution and is responsible for the superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of the electoral rolls for, and the conduct of, all elections to Parliament and to the Legislature of every State and of elections to the offices of President and Vice-President held under the Constitution. On the other hand, the Central Information Commission and State Information Commissions are statutory bodies established under the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005. Therefore, the mandate of Election Commission of India and Central and State Information Commissions are different. Hence, their status and service conditions need to be rationalised accordingly.

5. In view of the above, it is proposed to amend the Right to Information Act, 2005 so as to provide that the term of office of, and the salaries, allowances and other terms and conditions of service of, the Chief Information Commissioner and Information Commissioners and the State Chief Information Commissioner and the State Information Commissioners, shall be such as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

The 15th July, 2019.
